

Eco Village - open exhibition

Author: Gabriele Brennhaugen<post@ua21.no>

(12.05.2008) A number of businesses, NGOs and Eco Schools will exhibit their environmental approaches at the "Eco Village" during Tunza 2008. The exhibitions are open to the public.

In a separate exhibition tent, located at the University of Stavanger close to the conference buildings, you can learn more about waste recycling, renewable energy, cleaning without chemicals, Eco schools and other environmental topics.

The Eco Village is open to Tunza 2008 delegates and to the public in general. Free entrance.

Opening hours:

Tuesday 17 June 12.00 to 16.00

Wednesday 18 June 10.00 to 16.00

Thursday 19 June 10.00 to 16.00

Friday 20 June 10.00 to 16.00.

School classes from the Stavanger area are particularly invited to visit the exhibitions. They should pre-register for visit at a specific point of time. Please send an email to Tove Sæther Hegstad in.

We encourage all local visitors to come to the Eco Village on foot, by bike or by public transportation. Busses 5 A and 5 B run regularly from Stavanger, Sandnes and Sola to the University.
